

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION:

Instructions on how to submit an abstract can be found on the conference website at: bera.ac.uk/beraconference-2017

TYPES OF SUBMISSIONS:

Symposium

600 word abstract overview of the symposium

Innovation Session - categories:

Panel discussion; Workshop;

Activity; Offsite + Plenary

400 word abstract

Early Career Researcher Paper

400 word abstract

Individual Paper - with the opportunity to also submit as a PechaKucha presentation

400 word abstract

31 January 2017

Abstract submission deadline

13 March 2017

Authors notified of outcome of submission

01 May 2017

Early bird registration deadline. All presenting authors to be registered

23 May 2017

Authors notified of date and time of presentation

KEYNOTE

SPEAKERS

BERA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

5TH - 7TH SEPTEMBER 2017 | UNIVERSITY OF SUSSEX, BRIGHTON

PROFESSOR GARY MCCULLOCH

Gary McCulloch is currently the Brian Simon Professor of the History of Education at the UCL Institute of Education (the inaugural holder of this title) and Director of the International Centre for Historical Research in Education (ICHRE) based at the IOE. He has worked previously at the universities of Leeds, Lancaster and Sheffield as well as the University of Auckland in New Zealand. Gary is currently working on a social history of educational studies and research and a history of secondary education since the Second World War. He is a past president of the UK History of Education Society and a previous Editor of the journal History of Education, and is the current Editor of the British Journal of Educational Studies.

PROFESSOR GERT BIESTA

Gert Biesta (www.gertbiesta.com) is Professor of Education and Director of Research in the Department of Education of Brunel University London. In addition he holds the part-time NIVOZ Professorship for Education at the University of Humanistic Studies in the Netherlands and has visiting affiliations with ArteZ Institute of the Arts, the Netherlands, and NLA University College, Bergen, Norway. Since 2015 he is a member of the Education Council of the Netherlands, the advisory body for the Dutch government and parliament. His work focuses on the theory of education and the theory and philosophy of educational and social research. In recent years he has published on such topics as curriculum, teaching, teacher agency, democratic education and lifelong learning. His 2014 book The Beautiful Risk of Education won the 2014 Outstanding Book Award of the American Educational Research Association (Division B). His latest book, The Rediscovery of Teaching, is due to be published by Routledge in 2017.

DR NICOLA ROLLOCK

Dr Nicola Rollock is Deputy Director of the Centre for Research in Race & Education at the University of Birmingham. She is passionate about advancing race equity in education and employment and in understanding how racially minoritised groups navigate and survive racism. She is best known for her ground-breaking research The Educational Strategies of the Black Middle Classes, and the landmark report The Stephen Lawrence Inquiry 10 Years On. Nicola is Editor of a new journal - Whiteness & Education. Nicola is a Patron of the Equality Challenge Unit's Race Equality Chartermark, which aims to improve the experiences, progression and retention of racially minoritised staff and students in higher education and a member of BERA Council. She was included in the 2014 Powerlist of the most influential Black people in the UK and, in October 2015, was selected by the Women of the Year Council judges as a 2015 Woman of Achievement.